

Family Governance

So domestic bliss can prevail.

What services do we offer?

- Support in understanding and anticipating the family dynamic – because every family is different.
- Creation of a tailored family constitution with definition of family principles and economic structures.
- Specification of the relationship between family and company.
- Assurance of the sustainable use and distribution of assets among family members with the corresponding budgeting and cost controls. Long-term planning to preserve essential asset components.
- Development of the best possible legal and organizational structures for complex family relationships and the avoidance of potential legal, reputation and pecuniary risks due to unwanted interference by less closely related family members.
- FINAD assumes the role of moderator and coach in this process.

How do you benefit specifically?

- Comprehensive advice on family-internal processes and, therefore, substantiated decision making.
- Mediation in the event of misunderstandings and conflicts by a neutral third party.
- Clear overview and better orientation due to the comparison with other family structures (best practice).
- Security and stability within the family due to tried-and-tested structures and mechanisms.
- Long-term security and preservation of family assets.
